Annual Report

2023 Annual Report for

Fatherhood Revisited

Dear Friends of Fatherhood Revisited,

Fatherhood Revisited has had a wonderful year and we are committed to continuing to grow and prosper.

During the past year, we have received our first grant, increased our clientele and employees, held our first fundraising gala and began planning the second, gave away scholarship money and assisted some fathers in need. We created relationships for several other referral sources. We increased the community-based activities our clients again.

During the next fiscal year, we will continue to expand clientele and staff and create opportunities for families to increase their overall well-being, hold a bigger and better fundraising gala, and increase our social and emotional group offerings.

Thank you everyone for a great 2023. We are looking forward to an excellent 2024.
