

Fatherhood Revisited's Privacy Policy

Privacy Policy

Effective as of 24th day of March 2017.

Our Commitment to Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To better protect your privacy, we provide this notice explaining our online information practices and the choices you can make about the way your information is collected and used. To make this notice easy to find, we make it available on our homepage and at every point where personally identifiable information may be requested.

The Information We Collect:

This notice applies to all information collected or submitted on Fatherhood Revisited's website. On some pages, you can order products and services, make requests, and register to receive materials. The types of personal information collected at these pages are:

Name Address Email address Phone number Credit/Debit Card Information [etc.]

On some pages, you can submit information about other people. For example, if you order a gift online and want it sent directly to the recipient, you will need to submit the recipient's address. In this circumstance, the types of personal information collected are:

Name Address Phone Number [etc.]

The Way We Use Information:

We use the information you provide about yourself when placing an order only to complete that order. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete that order.

We use the information you provide about someone else when placing an order only to ship the product and to confirm delivery. We do not share this information with outside parties except to the extent necessary to complete that order.

We use return email addresses to answer the email we receive. Such addresses may be used by Fatherhood Revisited to update you on products and services we have but these email addresses are not used for any other purpose outside of those stated and are not shared with outside parties.

Fatherhood Revisited

Rebuilding Lives and Families

You can also register with our website if you would like to receive information pertaining to Fatherhood Revisited's products and services without purchasing a product first. Information you submit on our website will not be used for this purpose unless you fill out the registration form.

We use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website and to share with advertisers. For example, we may tell an advertiser that X number of individuals visited a certain area on our website, or that Y number of men and Z number of women filled out our registration form, but we do not disclose anything that could be used to identify those individuals.

How to inform Fatherhood Revisited not to share personal information

We never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the ones described above without also providing you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses. To inform Fatherhood Revisited not to share personal information, simply email us at info@fatherhoodrevisited.org and your information will be removed. You will receive a confirmation email when this is completed.

Our Commitment to Data Security

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Security Measures in Place

We make sure that all data collected is stored in a place that is only accessible by password and employees of the agency. All of our computers are password protected as well. Only administrative employees have access to data collected. Data is maintained electronically and cannot be printed without supervisor permission and the permission is to be given in writing with a reason. At this time, there is no reason to print data, so permission will not be given.

Our Commitment to Children's Privacy:

Protecting the privacy of the very young is especially important. For that reason, we never collect or maintain information at our website from those we actually know are under 13, and no part of our website is structured to attract anyone under 13.
